

Gray Television Launches “Full Court Press Now” Late Night Newscast to provide latest developments on COVID-19 Pandemic

April 3, 2020

Greta Van Susteren and InvestigateTV's Lee Zurik will provide live, late night reporting on critical, real-time information

WASHINGTON, D.C. -- Gray Television, Inc. (NYSE: GTN) today announced the launch of “Full Court Press Now” across its television stations in 93 markets from coast to coast on Monday, April 6.

“Full Court Press Now” is a new, live 30-minute newscast reporting the very latest COVID-19 developments hosted by Greta Van Susteren and InvestigateTV's Lee Zurik. The show will draw upon the local, real-time reporting from Gray Television's nearly 100 newsrooms. The show will keep close watch on what public officials, private companies and health providers are doing to support Americans in these unprecedented times. It also will feature heroes battling the pandemic and the brave Americans fighting to survive.

This nightly show will expand upon the existing “Full Court Press with Greta Van Susteren” weekly production. Ms. Van Susteren will host the show from her home studio, and InvestigateTV's Lee Zurik will contribute from the WVUE studio in New Orleans, where he is a lead anchor. InvestigateTV is Gray Television's investigative journalism unit, which launched a compelling, real-time COVID-19 County by County tracker in March.
