

Strong Industry Veterans Join Gray To Lead At WOWT In Omaha And KOSA In Odessa-Midland

May 10, 2018

ATLANTA, May 10, 2018 /PRNewswire/ -- Gray Television, Inc. ("Gray," "we," "us" or "our") (NYSE: GTN and GTN.A) announced its appointment of two veteran broadcasters to lead its television stations in the Omaha and Odessa-Midland television markets.

Gray named Andrew Stewart as its new Vice President and General Manager of WOWT (NBC 6) in the Omaha, Nebraska, market. Mr. Stewart has more than 35 years of broadcast television experience. He spent nearly eight years as Vice President and General Manager of Sinclair of Northern California, where he led an operation consisting of ten network affiliates in three Northern California markets. He also has held General Manager and sales management positions in Tucson, Arizona, and Albuquerque, New Mexico, and he previously served as Corporate Director of Television Sales for the former Lee Enterprises. He will begin at WOWT in early June.

Don Davis joined Gray in late March as the General Manager of KOSA-TV (CBS 7 News) in the Odessa-Midland, Texas, market. He also brings over 35 years of broadcast, media and sales experience to Gray Television. Prior to joining KOSA, he was a Senior Market Manager for Gabriel Media, a company working with television stations across the country to develop new revenue. Before that, he was Director of Sales at KBMT in Beaumont, Texas, and, previously, he was a Vice President, Sales with Warner Bros. Television–100+ Station Group. Mr. Davis has held various management, sales, marketing, operations and programming positions during his career.
